

PRACTICAL MERCY IS THEME AT CHURCHES TOMORROW

The churches of the United States have been asked to give one of the services tomorrow to the thought of practical mercy as that mercy is expressed by the American Red Cross.

The American Red Cross is the only nationwide authorized band for relief and all Americans everywhere are asked to give it their support. It is doing the work that the church sanctifies and all churches in Ogden have promised to give part of the thought tomorrow to the Red Cross.

The material for the church and other workers is at headquarters in room No. 2, city hall.

ADDRESS AT ORPHEUM IN INTEREST OF RED CROSS

The local Red Cross has selected the following address from a number given in the interest of the drive now on and requests The Standard to print:

"The Red Cross in the Cantonments," By Durlin N. Wheeler, at Orpheum theatre Friday night.

There is a name which has become sacred to every civilized country in the world, and is known and revered by a thousand million people who dwell upon the earth. This name does not represent an individual; it represents the tender heart and splendid humanity of a great people. During the latter months of the great world war the glory of the United States shone resplendent upon the battle fields, and awoke the world to awe. But more wonderful still than the sublime valor of that testing hour was the sublime love for humanity that rose in the bosom of this country and was carried abroad by the American Red Cross.

Our American sisters volunteered in the Red Cross service and followed us to the training camps, and overseas to the battle grounds. Wherever large numbers of people were suffering affliction in any part of the world there was to be found the Angel of Mercy holding aloft the banner of the American Red Cross, the sister emblem of the Stars and Stripes. We have seen the countless thousands of home our women folk were knitting for the Red Cross and their rooms in city, village and hamlet were teeming with activity in order that we soldiers might have a bountiful supply of bandages, sweaters and socks, while refugees in war-torn Europe received food and clothing from the same source.

While the epidemic of influenza raged in the camps last year, I saw Red Cross nurses work with heroic energy and self-sacrifice, never complaining, only serving, serving, serving humanity—and some of them made the supreme sacrifice.

Eighteen thousand people in Ogden are wanted to take dollar memberships in this Legion of Mercy. We are all proud to be born Americans, but the world is proud of the American Red Cross. It has carried with it a reputation of the fact that Americans are greedily lovers of money, for we have given our money unselfishly to maintain it. We should all be members, for our Red Cross has still a great work to carry on in the world.

WOODMEN OF WORLD HAVE DELIGHTFUL PARTY

The Woodmen of the World gave a Halloween dance and social in their hall on Washington avenue last Thursday night. There was a large attendance and many unique features were very entertaining. A guessing contest for the number of kernels on a corn cob was won by Miss Phillis Huss, a tiny tot of 10 years, who correctly guessed the number, 1407, and won a large box of candy. Another feature was the hiding of 100 balloons in the skylight and which, while the Crawford orchestra with the dancers were playing and singing "Dubbles" were let down among the dancers, causing much merriment. A pleading of balloons, horns and masks were distributed and pumpkin pies and elder were served. The evening was pleasantly spent and many requests made for another dance and good time with the Woodmen of the World. Dancing continued until 1 a. m.
